Youth Board Seeking Representatives

The Tonawanda Youth Bureau aims to recognize, empower, and develop youth through programming, volunteerism, recognition, and the opportunity to speak about the needs and desires of children and teenagers today. Our board consists of local students from each of the high schools located in the Town of Tonawanda as well as adults from various schools, organizations and businesses. We meet monthly throughout the school year as well as participate in, plan, and host local events.

Current Board Vacancies: Student Representatives from Kenmore West, Kenmore East, Ken-Ton Career & Technical Center, and Charter School for Applied Technologies & Teacher Representative from St. Joe's, Mount St. Mary Academy, or Cardinal O'Hara High School

To apply: Visit www.ttypr.com, contact your school principal or guidance office, or email nruberto@tonawanda.ny.us.
