

ERIE AT ITS EERIEST

Tuesday, May 23, 2023

Our first stop will be St. Patrick's Church. Built to look like a castle from Ireland, your guide will take you through the church which is highlighted by the life size Stations of the Cross.

Then, it's off to the Watson Curtze Mansion. Explore all the restored rooms of this 1900 built mansion along millionaires' row.

Concourse of Union Station is our lunch stop today. This 1927 train station has reported resident ghosts. They may join you for lunch if they are in the spirit. The Buffet luncheon includes: Cemetery Garden Salad, Sunset Chicken Breast, Gravel Covered Ham Steak, Mound of Spinach, Cheddar Mash Potatoes, Carrots in a Cloak of Green Dill, Assorted Rolls, Devils Food Delight Cake, Coffee, Tea, Iced Tea and a beer sample from the Brewerie to settle your nerves.

It's now time to set sail on the Victorian Princess, an old fashioned paddle boat ride that seats up to 165 people. This narrated cruise of Lake Erie will offer some interesting facts about Erie's Maritime history. Did you know that more boats have sunk on Lake Erie than in the Bermuda Triangle?
